Service facilities

This semi-detached house is located in a quiet cul-di-sac and has one bathroom, dining room, kitchen and a lounge. This property has been fully refurbished with a new kitchen and bathroom facilities and decorated throughout in the last two years.

The house also has a lovely garden attached to the back of it which is perfect for relaxing in and enjoying the peaceful location.

Community facilities

The local town, shops, medical centre and other facilities are within walking distance. There are excellent transport links where traveling outside the town to neighbouring counties is only a bus journey away.

Within walking distance is an indoor swimming pool and health suite. For anyone who enjoys playing pool Windmill snooker club is also located nearby.

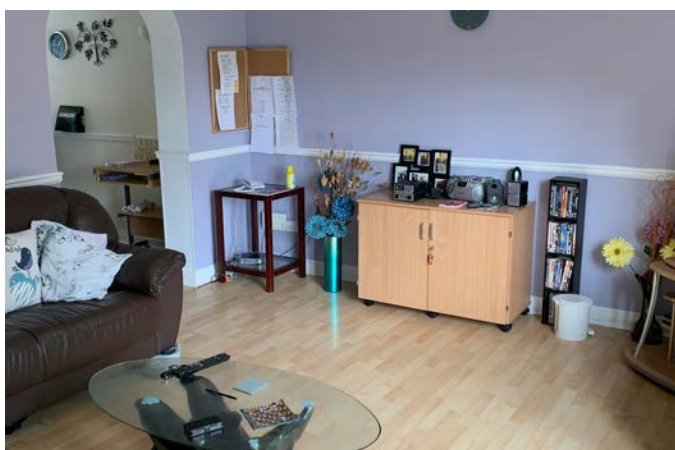

Millers Close is also a short distance from Rushden Lakes shopping complex with a wide range of activities including a cinema and adventure golf. There are also lovely walks around the lakes also located nearby.

We have another service nearby and we often hold events, gatherings and activities such as BBQs, this is a benefit of the services being close to one another as it allows everyone to attend.

“The current resident at Millers regularly expresses that he thoroughly enjoys living at Millers, the area and friendly neighbours make him feel safe. He enjoys the location and especially enjoys the quiet garden where he grows a variety of vegetables and flowers”
